

CFTU

Christian Feminism To You

Speakers Bureau

If Eve Only Knew: What the Bible Really Says about Women

Kendra uses questions and conversations to help people explore women who are included in the Bible but often are overlooked.

Kendra invites people to read the Bible in new ways. By stepping out of our twenty-first century contexts and into the cultures and times of the Bible, we will discover key questions and new considerations. Kendra's approach is to foster discussion, drawing forth insights from our collective imaginations. As we work together and identify how people might have lived over 2000 years ago, new insights emerge that enable us to grasp glimpses of how the Bible speaks to us today.

“Kendra really made the Bible come alive!”

Kendra Weddle, Ph.D., an associate professor of Religion and Humanities at Texas Wesleyan University, earned her Ph.D. in Religion at Baylor University in Waco, Texas (2001). Her specialty is History of Christianity with a focus on contributions of women, especially in the United States during the 19th and 20th centuries. Kendra explores the intersection between religion and feminism.

Her most recent book is a collaborative effort with Melanie Springer Mock: If Eve Only Knew published by Chalice Press (2015). A contributor to the CEB Women's Bible (Abingdon Press), Kendra's essays, articles, and reviews have appeared in The Christian Century, Christian Feminism Today, Methodist History, and Christian Scholar's Review.

While not teaching and writing, Kendra enjoys practicing hot yoga and reading fiction and/or memoir.

Learn more and read her blog on <http://ifeveonlyknew.com>.

For booking information contact Christian Feminism Today by emailing office [at] eewc [dot] com.

CFTU (Christian Feminism To You) is a service of Christian Feminism Today. Learn more at eewc.com.